I really like the app, but $10 a week is the only way for a lot that will be around $40 Also you should do this so you can also hear the sound of live wallpaper from in the app. But in general wallpapers are nice and have a cool background sound!!! If you are looking for a free app to get good quality anime wallpapers I wouldn't get this app which I saved just one then he started telling me that I had to pay $1.99 (basically $2) to get other wallpapers. Actual wallpapers are good, although they have a lot of anime wallpapers, but they have quite a large amount of ads in the app. Good app I'm still disappointed that I only have to save one wallpaper. (I rated it high stars, so other people can see it before buying the app) When I went on the app I definitely had some cool backgrounds, I found the one I liked right away but wasn't aware that I needed to buy it. It was only $2, so idk why everyone is really making it a big deal or is the fault of a lot of celebrities lol.
